

EXCEPTIONAL Flavor and Fragrance Ingredients

With a global footprint stretching from the Americas, to Europe and Asia, Phoenix sources the finest flavor and fragrance ingredients for its customers.

Sourcing the Finest Raw Materials

Customers benefit from Phoenix's long-standing relationships with experienced and reputable growers, processors and manufacturers in key global locations, who are committed to sustainability and green programs.

Distribution Facilities

With a strategically located 80,000 sq-ft facility, customers can rely on Phoenix to deliver quality products on time, and cost-effectively.

Analytical Laboratories

The Phoenix assurance of quality is apparent in a state-of-the-art analytical laboratory. It's equipped with the latest technology and enhanced by experienced analytical professionals.

Products

Choose from our extensive catalog of aroma chemicals, natural aroma chemicals, essential oils, absolutes and oleoresins, or take advantage of our cost-effective customized blends.

Global Reach

Our facility in Europe (Phoenix Aromas Europe Ltd.) allows us to provide the same quality products and service to our customers in the United Kingdom and beyond. Additionally, we strategically source from the Asian markets through our procurement center in China. We employ local professionals with extensive industry knowledge and the cultural expertise necessary to appropriately access the burgeoning Asian marketplace.

About Us

Phoenix Aromas & Essential Oils LLC was founded in 1994, grounded in a simple set of core values: provide top-quality products, cost-effective pricing and personalized attention to all our customers. After two decades, we remain committed to those values. With extensive market knowledge of our products, we anticipate, as opposed to merely react, to industry challenges. You can rely on us for all your flavor and fragrance ingredient needs.
